The Alice Springs Town Camp women want to be FREE from Family Violence:

“Family and Domestic Violence make us feel really small; it makes us sad and hurts our families and community. We feel sad for women and children and sad for our men. It makes us feel lost and worried and gives us a no good feeling.

Experiencing violence makes us scared for our kids and worn out. We feel ashamed, blamed, embarrassed and lonely. Violence is isolating and means we cannot be ourselves; it chases all our happiness away.

Living free from violence means our families can be happy
We wish every day was Sunday...”

NO MORE Family Violence!
